

Angel L. Pérez is VP & General Manager of Rock Solid Technologies, Inc.. He has a BS in Computer Engineering from UPRM and a MBA from University of Hartford, Connecticut. His areas of expertise are Entrepreneurship, Sales Management, Marketing, Project Management, Software Development, Information Technology Management and Consulting, Business Intelligence, and ERP/CRM Implementations.

Angel is President of the International Association of Microsoft Certified Partners (IAMCP) Puerto Rico. He has been awarded Distinguished Alumni – Colegio de Mayagüez Alumni Foundation 2008, Distinguished Computer Engineer 2003, College of Engineers and Land Surveyors Puerto Rico, and Businessman of the Year 2005 ADSEI- Association of Information Technology Directors. Angel is a licenced engineer in PR and is a professor at the Polytechnic University. He is also Guayacán & Massachusetts Institute of Technology EDP Fellow 2006 and Member of the Board of Directors Yo Limpio a Puerto Rico.

Angel grew up in Toa Alta where he participated in community activities as a basketball coach for children. He attended elementary school at Luis Muñoz Rivera School, intermediate school at Colegio Sagrada Familia in Corozal and High School at Academia Discípulos de Cristo in Bayamón. He is married and father of Angel Manuel (14) and Isabella (8).