

ICOM 5047 Homework 3

Due date: November 26, 2010

Points: 100 points

Individual homework – one per student

Submission via email

The homework must be submitted in English before 9:30AM on the due date and with the following subject: ICOM5047: Homework3. Any document received after 9:30AM will not be graded

A contemporary issue in engineering may refer to political, economical issues, regulation changes, or emerging technologies that impact the engineering practice

1. Identify and discuss a contemporary issue in computer engineering. Write a document (1 page at least) describing the main important elements of the discussion. Include references.